

PRESENTED BY

Saturday, November 17th - from 9 am to 4 pm located in the Windmill Community Center

Whether you are a crafter looking for a new place to share your talents, or a shopper looking for the perfect unique gift, this is the place to be on Saturday, November 17th. Ashburn Farm is hosting it's 12th Annual Craft Fair to offer our talented residents (and their friends) the chance to sell some of their creations. This is an opportunity for people to find some exceptional holiday gifts before the busy shopping season gets into full swing.

Dozens of local crafters will be at the Windmill Community Center with their beautiful handiwork. See all sorts of crafts including jewelry, weaving, baskets, quilts, wreaths, paintings, etc. Come meet these skilled artists & see how creative some of your fellow neighbors are. The Craft Fair will be open to residents as well as non-residents.

If you are a crafter, or know someone who is, we'd love to have you sign up as a vendor for this event! Your merchandise must be something you have handmade. To participate, please send the registration form and the nonrefundable $20.00, cash or check, signup fee to 21400 Windmill Drive, Ashburn, VA 20147. We will be advertising the Craft Fair in the local newspapers and online ahead of time to bring in even more shoppers.

Spaces will be assigned according to date of registration. Crafters will be able to begin setting up at 7 am on the day of the event. You will need to bring your own table and chairs for the day. Shoppers and vendors do NOT need to be residents of Ashburn Farm - so bring your friends to enjoy!
